SPEAKER SESSIONS

10:00-11:30 am

"Love & Logic Solutions for Kids with Special Needs"

Learn about providing kids with a positive sense of self-concept, setting reasonable limits, establishing empathy with consequences, and empowering kids to think about their actions.

Presented by:

Dave Funk has been an educator since 1969 and has taught in both regular and special education classrooms. He is responsible for participating in the evaluation and placement of disabled students, coordinating a number of special programs, and serving as liaison to parent groups. Dave is the author of "Love & Logic Solutions for Kids with Special Needs".

12:00-1:30 pm

Presented in English/Spanish!!! "Parenting Successful Children"

Parenting children has never been easy, much less today. In this session, we will explore practical strategies to guide our children & youth to become self-confident, competent, caring individuals who learn to value relationships at home, school, and the global community.

Presented by:

Dr. Rosina Gallagher is a school psychologist and educational consultant who has worked for 30 years with students of diverse learning characteristics and home life experiences. She was raised in Mexico through early adolescence, and the middle of seven offspring.
